

THE LAW OFFICE OF JARRETTE M. PITTMAN

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jarrette M. Pittman Appointed to NCBA's Judicial Independence and Integrity Committee

(GREENVILLE, N.C. - March 18, 2021) - Jarrette M. Pittman, Attorney at Law, has been appointed to the Judicial Independence and Integrity Committee of the North Carolina Bar Association (NCBA) for the 2020-2021 fiscal year.

The Judicial Independence and Integrity Committee strives, through educational and public information efforts, to increase awareness across all stakeholders of the importance of an independent judiciary and the critical role of the judicial branch. This committee supports the integrity of the civil and criminal justice systems in North Carolina by monitoring and addressing important issues affecting the judicial branch such as funding, overcrowded court dockets, new courts, public defender offices and other court needs.

Pittman is the former President of the Pitt County Bar Association and currently serves as the Vice President for the Board of Directors for the Mediation Center of Eastern Carolina. Pittman operates his own firm, the Law Office of Jarrette M. Pittman, and serves the needs of clients in criminal, family and estate matters. Pittman also taught as an adjunct professor at North Carolina Wesleyan College. Pittman earned his B.A. from UNC Chapel Hill and J.D. from the William and Mary School of Law.
